

Information about Tankless Water Heaters

Since 1955, Marey has been specializing in dependable tankless water heaters at an affordable price, giving everyone the opportunity to enjoy endless hot water. We make it our passion and strive to offer the most dependable and innovative tankless water heaters to best suit our customer's needs.

Below are some links to some vendors that carry products we feel you should add to your installation of your new Marey tankless water heater. We have no association with these other than they carry products we do not at this time. Additionally we have included a link to a YouTube Video we feel are very important. Please take the time to watch so you can keep your water heater at peak efficiency for many years to come.

Vent Pipe

Due to the higher acidity of condensation with tankless water heaters, it is recommended that all the gas powered units use stainless exhaust venting (AL29 4C) or similar.
